Best Practices

While enrollment in St. Thomas Aquinas Academy (STAA) is a viable legal alternative to classroom attendance, it is not a guarantee against interference from local school districts concerning your child(ren)'s education. If you do have a problem, STAA will assist you in any way possible, but we recommend a Home School Legal Defense Association \(HSLDA\) membership for any legal needs that arise. The discount code for STAA families is #299911.

We strongly encourage you to keep immunization records and/or statements of religious exemption, and you may send these documents to STAA to be stored in your record. You may also send STAA the optional STAA Welcome Packet forms for recording books read to/by each child, field trips, and course of study, as well as any standardized test results.

Parental Agreement

I understand that enrolling my child(ren) in STAA allows me, the homeschooling parent, to establish and adopt my own curriculum based on the individual needs of each student. To ensure full compliance with Colorado state law, I will familiarize myself with Colorado Revised Statute 22-33-104.5 and I will:

- At a minimum, include communication skills of reading, writing, and speaking; mathematics, history, civics, literature, science, and instruction on the Constitution of the United States in my homeschool curriculum;
- Send STAA attendance logs for each student to be filed at the end of each school year;
- Send STAA my $30.00 per family enrollment fee prior to each school year. I acknowledge that the enrollment fee and attendance logs keep my registration(s) current, and that if I do not submit them in a timely fashion, my child(ren) will be disenrolled.

I also understand and acknowledge that I should NOT submit a letter of intent to the school district, and that students enrolled in academic programs through any public school or public school home option such as Colorado Virtual Academy (COVA) or any other full-time online option CANNOT be enrolled in STAA.

Please sign and date below to affirm your agreement to the terms above.
